

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Emily K. Lauder
Vice President of Administration
Toyota Motor Manufacturing Mississippi

Emily K. Lauder was named vice president of administration at Toyota Mississippi in June 2018. The manufacturing facility, located in Blue Springs, produces the Corolla, Toyota's highest volume selling vehicle in the world. In this role, Lauder is responsible for all areas of administration including human resources, general affairs, safety, accounting and finance, and production control.

Prior to joining Toyota Mississippi, Emily was the general manager for human resources strategic partnering-manufacturing at Toyota Motor North America in Plano, TX. During her 18-year tenure with Toyota, Emily has served in many capacities including assistant manager and specialist in the accounting and finance department at Toyota West Virginia, and manager of human resources, accounting and finance at Toyota Alabama.

Prior to joining Toyota, Emily held positions as a financial analyst with AEI Resources in Ashland, Kentucky, and multiple accounting and finance positions with Square D Company in Cincinnati, Ohio and Nashville, Tennessee.

Emily currently serves on the board of the Community Development Foundation in Tupelo, Mississippi. During her time at Toyota Alabama she served on the Huntsville/Madison Co. Chamber of Commerce Executive Committee and as the Chamber's Vice Chair for the Workforce and Education Committee, and on the board of directors for Huntsville/Madison Schools Foundation. She is a past President of the Southern Automotive Women's Forum(SAWF) and remains an active member of the SAWF Board.

Emily received a BBA in Finance from Ohio University (Athens, OH) and an MBA in Decision Sciences from Miami University (Oxford, Ohio). She and her family live in Tupelo, MS.